

Community Leadership Program (CLP)

The Community Leadership Program (CLP) is a FREE 6-month program designed to empower leaders from all communities to engage in innovative community-building. Participants will engage in skill-building seminars and trainings. Sessions will take place monthly from January 2017-June 2017.

Fellows will learn about...

Advocacy/Government Relations:

Navigate the legislative process and advocate for your community.

Cultural Competency/Humility:

Approach and respectfully work with diverse people and populations.

Financial Resource Development:

Create fundraising strategies and practice grant writing.

Media Relations: Gain access to local media outlets; Prepare a press release and more.

Partnership & Coalition Development: Utilize tools and resources to build achievable and sustainable partnerships.

Professional Networking: Maximize your new relationships with CLP peers and alumni.
